

There is a reason that over 2.8 million New Jerseyans have already signed up for the Do Not Call Program. That reason is because we were sick and tired of being bothered by sales people who interrupted our dinners and our family time after we came home from a tough day. That phone line goes two ways and if we want their services we will call them!